(d) Keeping in view the availability of funds and the need to optimise the infrastructural facilities in the existing Export Promotion Zones, there is no proposal at present for the Central Govt. to set up new Zones in the country. However, Export Processing zones can now be established by State Govts. or in joint/private sector.

Import restrictions on luxury goods

3216. SHRI ASHOK MITRA: Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have studied the recent decision by the Pakistani authorities to impose quantitative and tariff restrictions on the import of luxury goods;

(b) whether it is the intention of our Government to follow the example of Pakistan in this matter; and

(c) whether consultations on this issue have taken place with the International Monetary Fund and the World Trade Organisation?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI BOLLA BULI RAMAIAH): (a) As per information received from High Commission of India, Islamabad, a news item had appeared in the Pakistani Press in the last week of February, 1997 to the effect that the Prime Minister of Pakistan had directed the Central Board of Revenue to ban Import of all luxury items except those required for industrial use. However, no formal notification has been issued so far implementing the reported directive.

(b) and (c) Do not arise.
